WILSON
Para 2 SSCI J-13
77-0531/1

13. [redacted] LIAISON I called Earl Eisenhower, 25X1
Minority Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, [redacted]
(who had been in Arizona during the Easter recess), [redacted] of the Director's desire to meet with Chairman Daniel Inouye (D., Hawaii) and Vice Chairman Barry Goldwater (R., Ariz.) prior to the meeting with the Committee this afternoon at which he will brief the members on sensitive intelligence collection activities in addition to giving the Committee an updated briefing on covert action programs. Eisenhower said that Senator Goldwater has not been well following his trip to the Far East and would have to go home to recuperate; therefore, he will not be able to meet with the Director and Chairman Inouye. Eisenhower said he would try to get another minority member to attend the meeting and offered to sit in for Senator Goldwater if the Director wished. He said he would not attend, however, unless he received further word from me. I checked with the Director, who preferred not to have Eisenhower present and therefore no call was made to him.

I told Eisenhower that John Waller, IG, was available to brief Bill Miller, Mike Madigan, also of the Committee staff, and himself on the Wilson case and developments in Libya and on the Stockwell case, at their convenience. Eisenhower said he wanted to do this as soon as possible and would get together will Miller and let us know a suitable time.
